

What could you leave your children and grandchildren that would be of the most worth?

What about your testimony of Jesus Christ and personal experiences that have built your faith.

Answer as many of these questions as you'd like and then get the answers into the hands of your family.

Then when the family is studying during the week, your personal stories can be shared. Send them however you feel most comfortable: email, text, written down or video chat. What a treasure you would be leaving your posterity.
