

TIC TAC TOE: SCRIPTURE BOARD

Let your family members feel more ownership of their learning by giving them the power of choice! Have them choose three activities in a row to make a tic tac toe!

draw a picture of what you read about	watch the videos that correlate with the scripture verses you read	call a family member and ask them their thoughts about what you read find a hymn or primary song that goes with the scriptures you read and sing it	answer the question: "how does this scripture apply to me today?"	read scriptures in a tent or pillow fort read scriptures with a stuffed animal	act out the scripture story	listen to the scripture verses online and follow along

TIC TAC TOE: FAMILY HISTORY BOARD

Let your family members feel more ownership of their learning by giving them the power of choice! Have them choose three activities in a row to make a tic tac toe!

draw a picture that goes with a story of one of your ancestors	go on familysearch.com and research one of your ancestors	call a family member and interview them about their childhood write a story about your life that you would want your grandkids to read	listen or read a story about one of your ancestors then answer the question: "how does this story apply to me today?"	hang a picture of one of your ancestors in your room make a family tree (be creative!)	act out a story from one of your ancestors	find a song that reminds you of one of your ancestors and share it with your family

TIC TAC TOE: INTERVIEW BOARD

Let your family members feel more ownership of their learning by giving them the power of choice! Have them choose three activities in a row to make a tic tac toe!

what was your favorite game growing up?	what is the best advice someone ever gave you?	what historical events have you lived through?
what was your greatest challenge growing up?	what are some of your favorite family traditions?	what is your first childhood memory?
what is your favorite holiday memory growing up?	what do you consider to be your greatest achievement?	how did your parents choose your name?

TIC TAC TOE: JOURNALING BOARD

Let your family members feel more ownership of their learning by giving them the power of choice! Have them choose three activities in a row to make a tic tac toe!

answer a question	make a collage	add stickers draw a picture	write how the lesson applies to you today	answer a question write a memory	answer a question	attach a note